

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Uncle Louie is a dark comedy...an urban fairy tale. It deals with hope, despair and family secrets. This Indie Film invokes the slight- of -hand of Voodoo, Christianity and Eastern Mysticism and answers, or presumes to answer, the riddles of the cosmos. It is set in Modern-day California, but its roots are firmly embedded in Buffalo, New York and Northern New Jersey Italian -American culture.

Benny Miccicci is in trouble with a demonic loan- shark. He is reluctant to get his girlfriend, Bernice, involved in his dilemma, however she comes to his rescue by invoking help from the dark side. Uncle Louie, a notorious hit-man from Buffalo, long dispatched from this earth, is summoned to help his hapless nephew and take charge of his situation...sort of.

Uncle Louie was a labor of love engaged by a dedicated cast and crew who made mistakes, learned lessons, but never failed to persevere. It has won Awards of Merit at both The Accolade Film Competition and Indie Fest. The film is a collaboration of the talented and enigmatic director, R. Allen Russell, the Film Writers and Producers, Joseph Izzo and Joseph Mangelli and the stars Nick D'Arpino, Michele Mangelli, Craig Ferrierra and Mikol Garcia.

“This is a validation for film makers everywhere. A film is the ultimate collaborative work of art,” said Director R. Allen Russell. “It was a joy to see our hard work pay off with recognition from The Accolade and Indie Fest competitions and now the honor of The Buffalo Niagara Film Festival.”

MEDIA: To view a trailer or additional photos, visit UncleLouieTheMovie.com (<http://www.unclelouiemovie.com>). To arrange for interviews, call Joseph Izzo at (408-821-4510).

CONTACT:
Joseph Izzo
Karmobello Productions
2521 Moorpark Avenue
San Jose, CA 95128
PHONE. (408) 821-4510
candjmang@msn.com